Fretful Horse Causes Excitement. Fear sent a horse on a rampage through Academy street Monday afternoon. An automobile set the horse off on its wild hike, which was brief but somewhat disastrous. In the rear of the Boston store building the runaway hooked on to the vehicle that Frank Spaulding uses to take pussengers and luggage back and forth between Dan-ielson and Brooklyn. The result of this entanglement was that the frightened horse freed itself from the vehi-cle to which it was attached, also leav ing the greater part of its harness. Having accomplished this achievement, the horse slowed down to a canter, whereas previously it seemed trying for the broad jump record. Mrs. Charles Fiske of South Killingly had the horse in Danielson. Mr. Spaulding's outfit was not seriously injured.

Gilbert Pellerin Pays His Own Fine and That of His Assistant $41.93.

and That of His Assistant $41.93.

'I am not very game: I'll stop."
This was one of set of sayings and resolutions that Gilbert Pellorin made in the town court Monday afternoon, when he was presented on a charge of conducting a place where gambling was carried on, in the Evans block.

Pellerin amused the court officials and spectators with his naive explanation of how he came to be in trouble. He pleaded guilty of the count against him and was fined $5 and costs amounting to $24.29. George Sorosis of Putnam, who has been running the pool room for Pellerin for the past two weeks and who was arrested Monday morning by State Policemen Robert W. Bridgman of Rocky Hill and H. W. Cleveland of Plymouth, pleaded guilty to frequenting a gambling place and was fined $5 and costs amounting to $17.64. Pellerin paid the whole bill of $41.93 and promised to cut out the poker playing that has been the regular thing at his place. While the case was under consideration. Prosecuting Attorney A. G. Bill stated that he had received letters and numerous complaints relative to Pellerin's place and that, nolhwithstanding Pellerin's statement that the games played were for small stakes, much money had been lost there. for small stakes, much money had been for small stakes, much money had been lost there.

It came out during that discussion that the officials also have knowledge of about a iralf dozen other places in Danielson where quiet games of poker go on almost daily and it is said if those implicated fail to heed the lesson inflicted upon Pellerin they may know what to expect. Pellerin says he is going to sell out his place.

Seized Liquors Ordered Destroyed. At the same session of the court there were hearings to determine the ownership of the liquors seized at Frank Auger's place in the Evans block and from the place where Homer Bruno boarded in the Johnson building, these seizures being made by the state police on Saturday evening, May 20. No one appeared to claim the stuff and Judge Back ordered it destroyed. This Judge Back ordered it destroyed. This heartrending (to some) proceeding was immediately carried out by State Policemen Bridgman, Jackson and Egan, they pouring it upon the parched grass in the rear of the police station, while a thirsty audience gazed at and pon-dered on such wastefulness.

while they were watch-dogging the square, praying that something might develop, a pretty chunk of a horse hitched to a post in front of Mullan's store, exercised its privilege of becoming frightened at a passing train, reared, plunged and ripped its bridle off and tore its mouth. The hitch rope held, however, until the reporters got to the animal and bravely tackled the job of calming it from a state of feeling that was accompanied by leaving and that was accompanied by leaping and plunging. They were highly successful in this and figured a riost successful debut as candidates for Carnegle medals, until they discovered they couldn't stand there and hold the animal all the afternoon. Neither knew what nor how to do do with the perky bobtail, and that latter seemed to realize it. The writers were not strong as ani-mal tamers and even with their arms around the critter's neck the situation around the critter's neck the situation was not near as pacific or joyous as such a half-nelsen had made many other cases in their experiences. Being a hero is no fun when you don't know the job, and, besides, one cannot hug a horse all day. It is one thing to catch a horse and quite another to know what to do after you get him. But those reporters thanked heaven that somebody knew; and when Edmond Thetreauit, bless him! came out of Mullan's store and took the tumbling, snorting beast in hand, there bling snorting beast in hand, there were murmurs of reportorial thanks-giving. There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co. Toledo, Onio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a tenspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it falls to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for consti-
